DRAGON

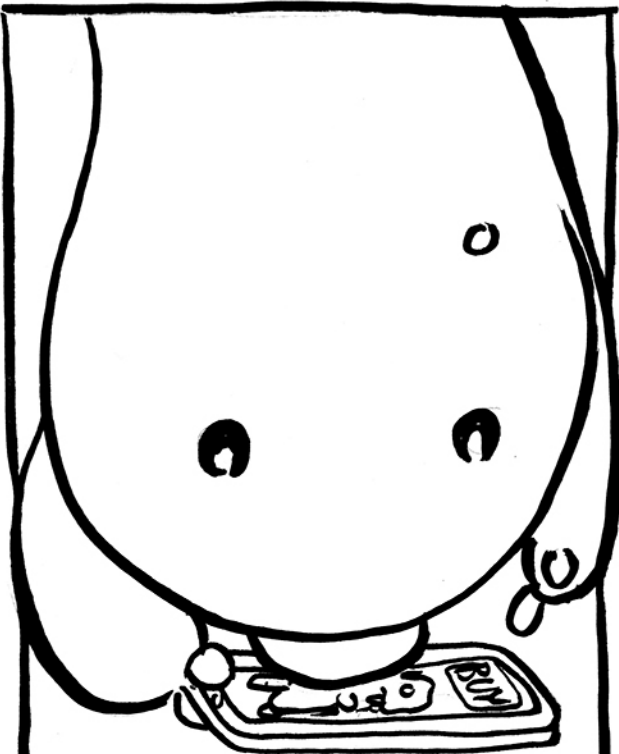

Dragon, what could you possibly be buying...?

Everything...

Every empty box fills the HOLE in my heart...

Magnet... I've vastly expanded my SDFUBI KAIJU MONSTER collection but I'm still bored...

Maybe I should buy this SQUISHY GLOW-in-the-DARK variant with RAINBOW HAIR... it could be worth something after the...

AND PLAY with BOXES?!

STOP BUYING THINGS!!

CARDBOARD QUEST™

YOU HAVE BEEN CHOSEN to FIND the FOUR TREASURES of the CARDBORIAN KINGDOM!!! TOGETHER they form a POWERFUL MAGICAL ULTIMATE TREASURE that will:

- I A. RESTORE the RAINBOW RIVER
- B. SAVE the GOBLIN-KINS from the VILE TRUMPOR
- C. De-head the 19-HEADED COVID BEAST
- D. MAKE BUCKETS of SPARKLY GEMS.

II WHO ARE YOU FAIR ADVENTURER(S)?

III SUIT UP-SWORDS UP: MAKE USE of Cardboard boxes, aluminum foil, and gift wrap tubes to EQUIP yourself in the most magical armor and armed with the most MAGICAL +1 weapons your parents will ALLOW (and, yes, HUGS are the most POWERFUL weapon against the most BODACIOUS BUG BEARS!) And don't forget other traveling gear like ROPE, VIALS to STORE MONSTER GOO, and, of course a TOWEL.

IV BUILD YOUR KINGDOM: Each TREASURE has been hidden in a special TEMPLE in CARDBORIA that you NEED to MAKE!

BUILDING blocks are FINE but CARDBOARD is best to SCALE UP for MAXIMUM QUESTING! The COLORS of EACH gem make great clues to find your way and don't forget to BUILD challenges along the way - like the LAVA POOLS of MAGNAR, the FUZZ-LYNX FOREST of UNENDING SHADOW BEASTS or BOSTON. The QUEST isn't just about the LOOT!

CUT OUT THESE FLAGS to MARK the SECRET TEMPLES!

But... HERE'S the LOOT by TEMPLE:

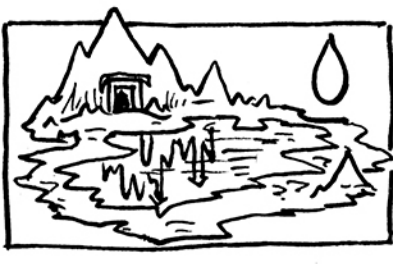

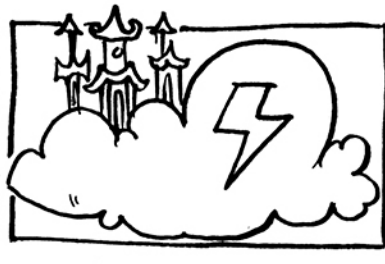

🌊: This GEM gives you WATER POWERS.

🔥: This JEWEL bestows roaring FIRE SPELLS.

⚡: This ROD summons LIGHTNING, SPARKS, & THUNDER.

🌿: This AMULET lets the wearer CONTROL PLANTS.

V FIND a MAP: It may be in a crusty old bottle or lining a gryphon's nest... but if you can't find one - have some one make one while they HIDE the FOUR TREASURES of the CARDBORIAN KINGDOM (leaving lots of CLUES!)

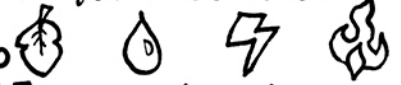

VI. QUEST AWAY! There's no wrong way to QUEST, though, you might consider NOT murdering all the KOBOLDS - just give them hugs! Not all monsters are bad... but if your quest is more on the VIOLENT side consider making LIFE TOKENS out of ♥s to track your HEALTH.

SIDE QUESTS are BEST! Sure you could just STORM the TEMPLE of THUNDROS but maybe a better way in is to present the temple guards with nice WOOLEN sweaters and the only way to get sweaters is to broker a TRADE DEAL with the SABER TOOTH SHEEP SHEPHERDS of VARDIGAN THEN convince the WIND WEAVERS of WYVERNESS to manufacture them. Remember the knitting needle is mightier than the SWORD.

VII. UNITING the FOUR TREASURES: FANFARE! FIRE WORKS! FEASTINGS!
 Congratulations! You have gathered the powers of WATER, FIRE, PLANTS, and ELECTRONS, and now you HAVE the MAGICKS to fulfill your QUESTINGS! Assemble the FOUR TREASURES into their ULTIMATE FORM and go where you need to go... and do whatever you need to do to RESTORE ORDER to the GLORIOUS KINGDOM of CARBORIA!

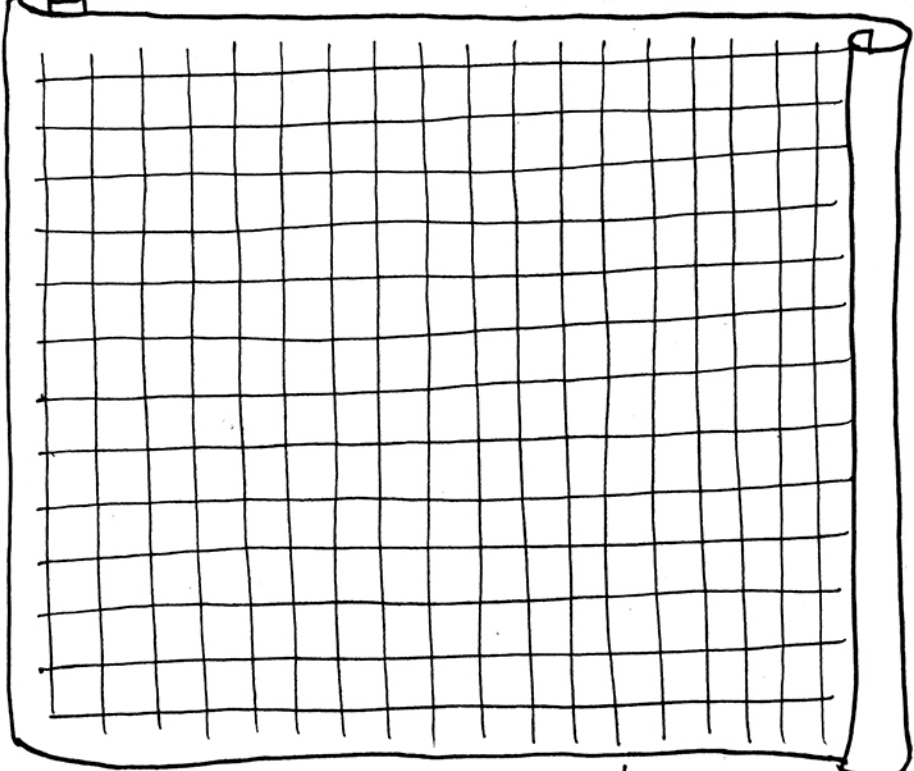

VIII. FOR POSTERITY: And be sure to document your adventures! Either write out your one of the OTHERWORLDLY MAGICAL image-stealing bricks you call "smart phones." And don't forget (with your parents or guardians permission) to send in your journey to us for your chance to win a Dragon & GOAT pin or button or other PRIZE!

◆ ADVENTURER'S MAP ◆

☆ QUEST JOURNAL ☾

A HERO only BECOMES a LEGEND if their story is told again and again! Be sure to write down your adventure for the AGES (Here is one of Dragon & Goat's)

- ① GOAT the KNOBLE KNIGHT discovers a map that Dragon the Sneaky Snark BORROWED (stole) from the EVIL LIBRARY.
- ② The ADVENTURERS first carve their way through the VERDANT lands of CHLOPHOX. With help from a friendly WERE-SQUIRREL they retrieved the GREEN AMULET.
- ③ To breach the Fiery HALLS of FLAMERA they need to venture underground - and the friendly but fierce TROLL ROTMOSS would lead the way... (to be continued..)

☆ FOR MAPS try to assign different DOMAINS to different ROOMS in your home!

MASTER theART of the

BROWN SMITH

HINTS for a CARDBOARD ARMORER

• Use flaps to make connections secure inside the box

• Paint pieces different colors before gluing

MEASURE & FIND a BOX for YOURS

① HEAD HEIGHT

Your HELM can have HORNS, a CREST, or wings. Try to FIND historic helms online to model yours!

② SHOULDERS to BELLY BUTTON

Pauldrons protect your shoulders but the breast plate is MOST important to GUARD your HEART, LUNGS & GOOEY INSIDES

③ WAIST to MID-THIGH

FULL PLATE ARMOR offers MAXIMUM protection but is SUPER HEAVY!

Unless you have a WAR HORSE, lighten your load with CHAIN MAIL (or at least BUBBLE MAIL!)

(YOUR CREST HERE)

PRO TIPS: Hot glue is best but if "stuck" with WHITE glue - use binder clips or clothespins while drying - AND don't forget PACKAGING TAPE!

< Fill in with BUBBLE WRAP >

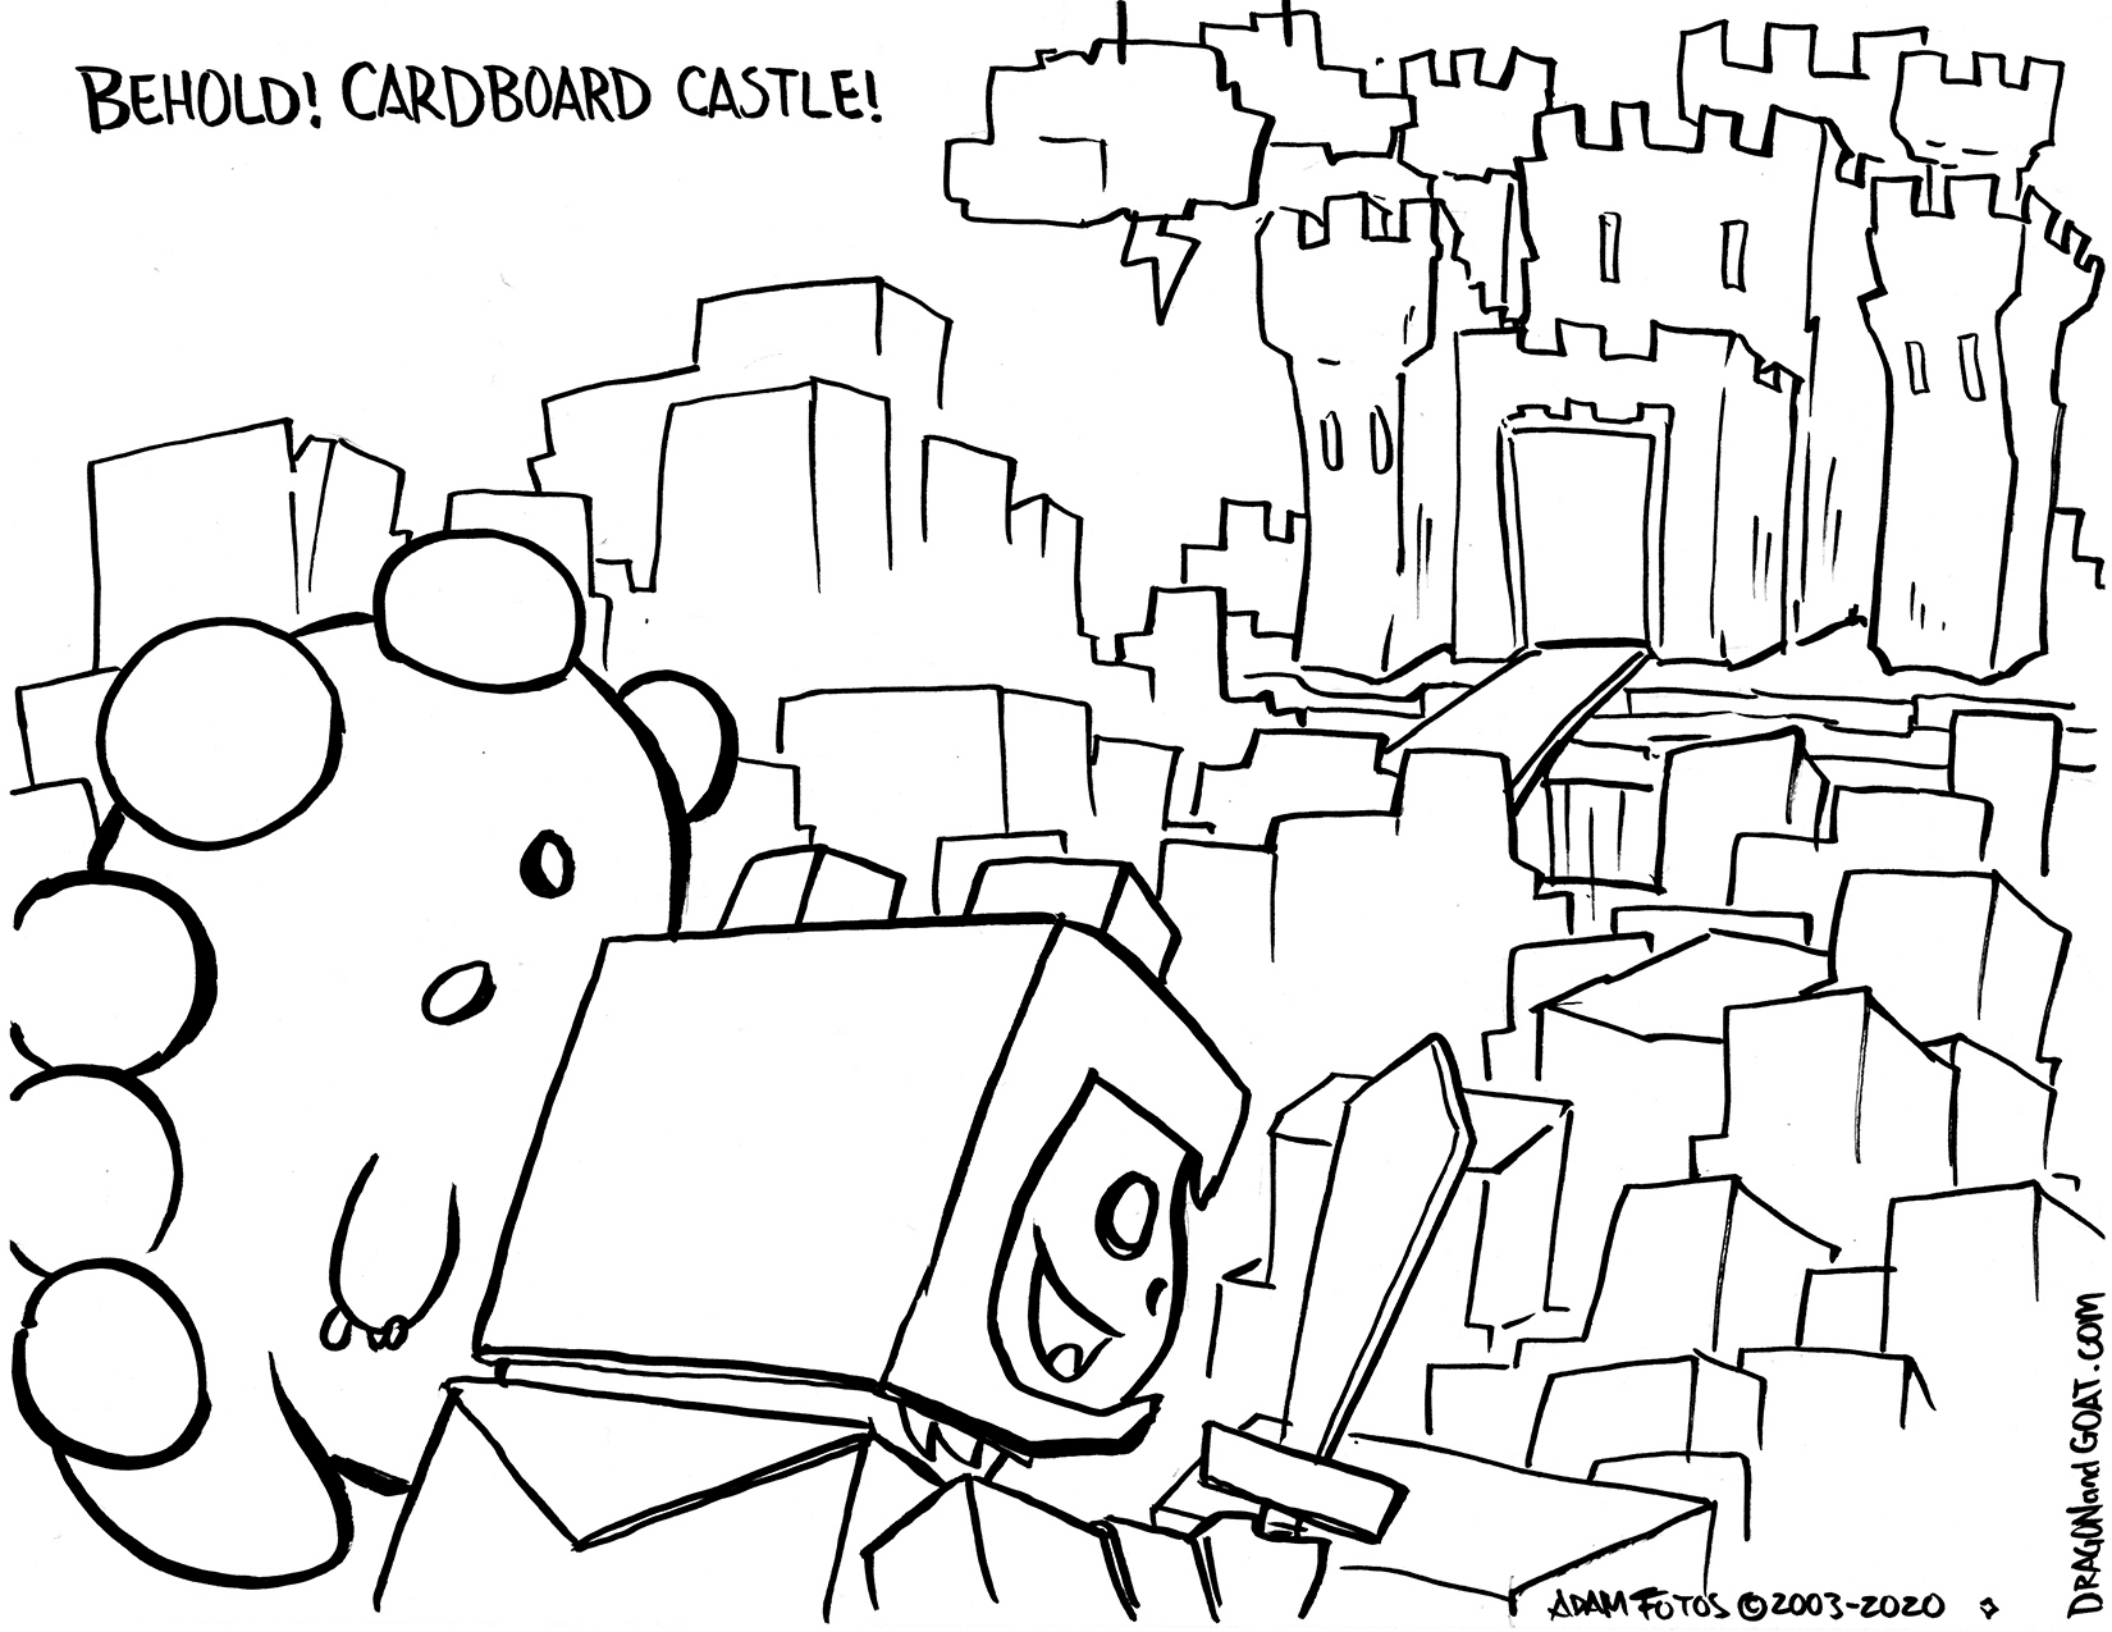

• Obviously, use a SHOE BOX for BOOTS

Cutting different shapes into the eye or face holes can make your helmet more unique or TERRIFYING

Glue up & down

(Don't forget to build in flexibility!)

BEHOLD! CARDBOARD CASTLE!

At WHAT is Dragon chucking a Fireball??

What does the DROLL DRUID face in the CITY?

What is the Sneaky Shark nabbing from the Lava Cave?

Seriously, though I was just a FARMER until I found this ARMOR...

Everyone is born an acorn but the HERO is the one who becomes a MIGHTY OAK.

Let's turn that PLOWSHARE into a SWORD!

It's... a pitch fork.

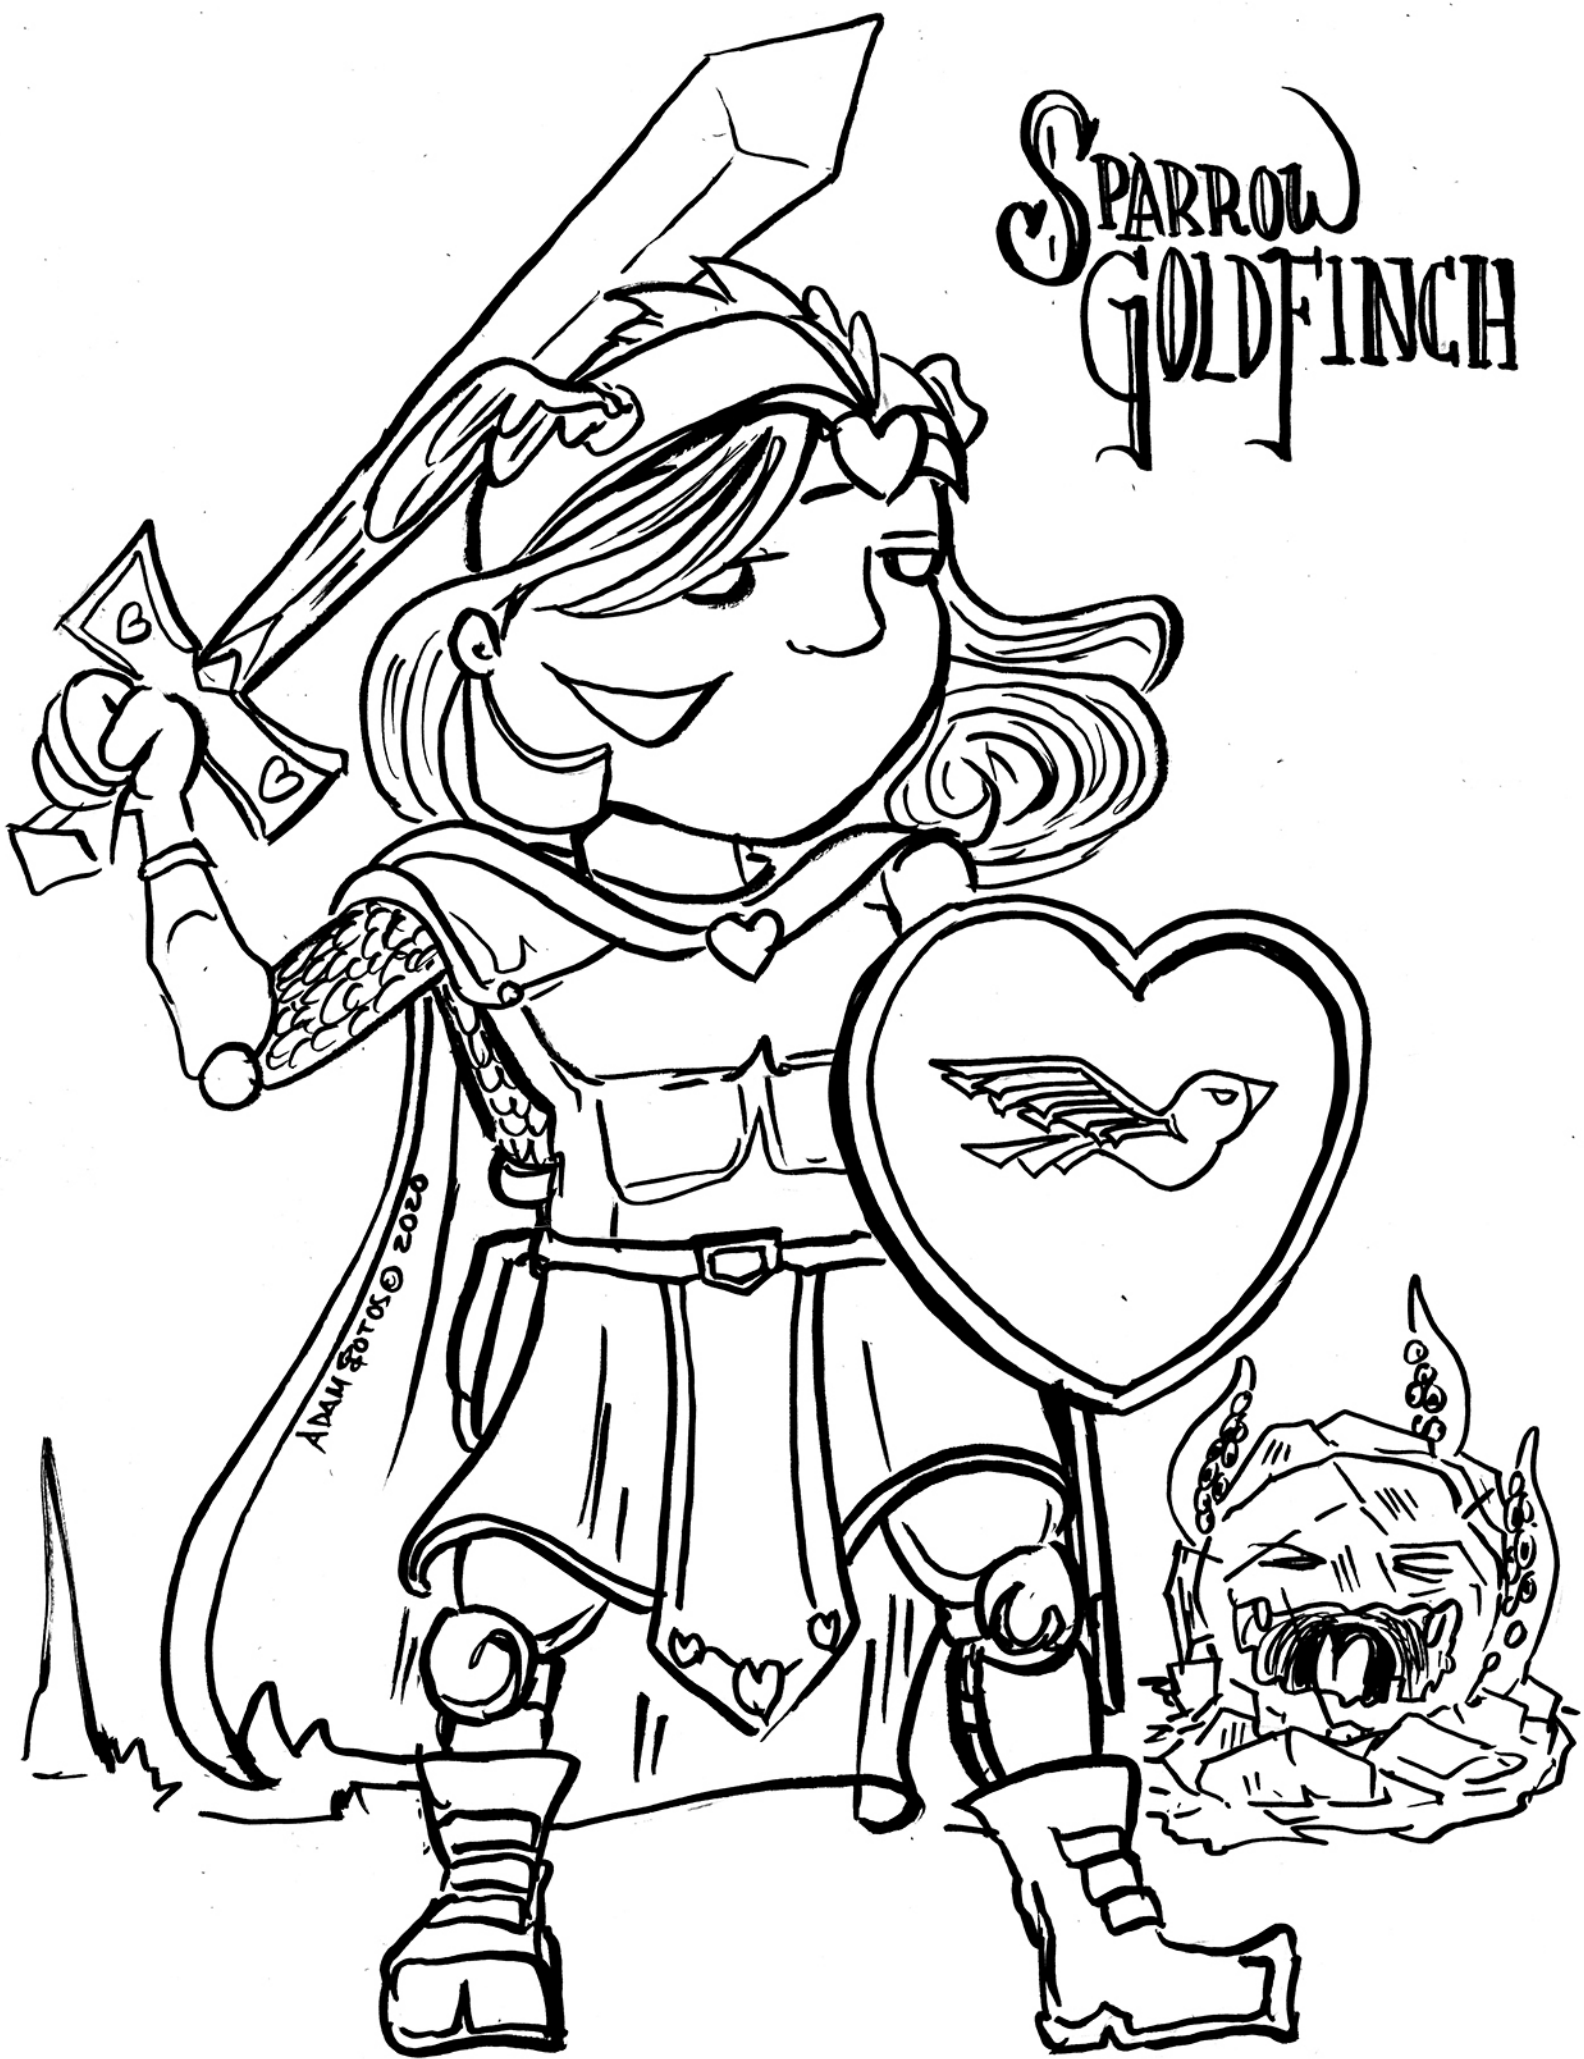

So what do we do now that we have all FOUR CARBORIAN Treasures?

Time to start my DRAGON HORDE!
